WHAT IS THIS PRODUCT?

Type: Collective investment scheme established under UCITS Act and complying with Directive 2009/65/EC in relation to the distribution of financial products to retail commercial investors (UCITS fund). The investment team manages the Fund's portfolio according to its investment mandate, as described in the Fund's Prospectus on the MC website www.expat.bg

Term: The fund is established for an unlimited period of time. The Management Company may terminate and/or convert the Fund through a liquidation procedure, merger with or acquisition of another fund in the best interests of investors, in accordance with the law and subject to the approval of the Commission.

Objectives: The Fund's investment strategy provides for the preservation of the value of investments and the realization of gains primarily from current income (coupon payments) from debt securities and other fixed income financial instruments. The selection of financial instruments in its portfolio is guided by the investment mandate, and the MC consistently applies the top-down approach of identifying and analyzing prospective sectors in the relevant target country from the list below and the bottom-up approach of selecting specific issuers according to their financial condition, development trends, management and corporate governance, and credit history. The solvency of a company or a country is the guiding criterion in making an investment decision, rather than seeking to structure a portfolio with participation from all countries in which the Fund focuses, with weightings according to the size of the country's GDP. The Fund uses hedging techniques to protect against market, currency and other risks through currency forward contracts and inverse instruments. These techniques, when applied in the right market context, help to enhance the Fund's performance, but do not guarantee it by their application. Factors that affect the Fund's performance are: the performance of the financial instruments in which the Fund invests, the liquidity and efficiency of the capital markets, operating and other trading costs, hedging, etc.

The fund aims to achieve a return on your investment through a combination of income and capital growth (total return). The product's return is directly dependent on the performance of the assets held by the Fund, with the main factors affecting performance being the investment strategy, the risk profile of the Fund, the recommended holding period, the cost to the investor of making the investment etc. The recommended holding period is a function of the Fund's risk profile, investment policy and expected return. The recommended holding period is calculated in accordance with the Fund's investment strategy and the time frame in which the Fund's investment objective is expected to be achieved. This Fund may not be suitable for investors who plan to withdraw their funds prior to the recommended holding period. Each investment should be considered in accordance with your specific investment objectives and risk appetite (see section "How long should I hold the investment and can I withdraw my money early?").

Intended Retail Investor: This product is also suitable for retail investors who have basic and/or no knowledge and no or limited experience of investing in funds, who seek to increase the value of their investment within the recommended holding period, and who are willing to take a low level of risk for their initial capital. The Fund is designed for individual investors who are able to bear the potential investment losses associated with this product.

Purchase or Redemption Orders: Orders to purchase or redeem Units in the Primary Market are accepted each business day between 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. EET. More information is contained in the Fund's Prospectus on the MC's website at www.expat.bg. Investors may buy and sell units of the Fund on the exchanges on which they are listed.

Distribution Policy: The Fund does not distribute dividends. Income from such is reinvested in accordance with the investment mandate, thereby increasing net asset value and preserving the best interests of investors and the integrity of the strategy.
