Requirements to the securities, money market instruments and the other assets under Art. 38 of LACISOCIU and to the structure of assets and liabilities and the liquidity of the Exchange-Traded Fund

Main investment objectives and strategy

Art. 7. (1) Expat Slovakia SAX UCITS ETF is a passively managed exchange-traded fund which follows the model of full physical replication of a Reference Index.

(2) In order to achieve best possible correlation with the performance of the Reference Index, the Fund shall invest predominantly in a basket of balance sheet assets, consisting of the shares of the companies in the Reference Index. As a Fund for direct replication Expat

Slovakia SAX UCITS ETF may not invest in each company from the Reference Index, or with the exact weight of the relevant company in the Reference Index. The Fund seeks to track the Reference Index, while it is possible the allocation of the shares in the Fund to deviate from that of the Reference Index due to the restrictions for concentration set forth in the law, or at the time of extraordinary market conditions. In normal market conditions and adequate liquidity in the Index constituents, the Fund will invest in the Reference Index constituents, maximum close to the Index weights and in compliance with the statutory limits and restrictions in the Rules. To ensure transparency of the method by which the Reference Index performance is replicated, the investors may find updated information on the composition of the portfolio of Expat Slovakia SAX UCITS ETF on the page dedicated to the Fund at www.expat.bg. The frequency of the updating and/or the date on which the above mentioned information has been updated shall be indicated on the same website.

(3) The extent to which a direct replication fund can achieve its objectives depends on the investment restrictions with which the Fund must comply, as described in these Rules. In addition to the investment restrictions, it should be noted that:

- a) Extraordinary circumstances, such as but not limited to, disruptive market conditions or extremely volatile markets, may occur and cause the performance of the Fund to depart considerably from the performance of the Reference Index;
- b) Due to different factors, including fees and costs, limits of concentration, other legal or regulatory restrictions, as well as in some cases illiquidity of certain securities, it may not be possible or practicable to invest in all companies from the Reference index, and/or in the same proportions as they are in the Reference index.

(4) The investment strategy of the Fund envisages realised dividend income to be reinvested in shares of the Reference Index.

(5) The Fund is exposed to volatility risks of deviation in tracking the Reference Index, the so called "tracking error risks", which may have as a result the value and the performance of the Fund's units not follow exactly the value and performance of the Reference Index.

(6) „Tracking error“ is the volatility (measured by the annualized standard deviation) of the difference between the annual return of the index tracking Fund and the annual return of the Index itself.

(7) The estimated level of the annual „Tracking error“ from following the Reference index under normal market conditions is 10.00%. The estimated tracking error is calculated based on the performance of the Fund's NAV against the performance of the Reference index, assuming that the obtained dividends from the Index constituents are also reinvested. The estimated level is determined based on historical tests (back testing), involving the historical performance of SAX and simulated performance of Expat Slovakia SAX UCITS ETF compared to it, taking into account the inability of the Fund to replicate SAX at 100% due to legal restrictions related to the liquidity, estimated annual management expenses and other expenses, and estimated average bid-ask spread of the shares in SAX.

(8) In view of the high volatility of the Reference Index which the Fund follows, the ETF is classified as a „high-risk fund“.

Investment policy Composition and structure of the assets

Art. 8. (1) (Am. by BD Resolution № 223/06.12.2017) As a Fund for full physical index replication Expat Slovakia SAX UCITS ETF will invest in the following way and in accordance with the Fund's Rules:

- 1) (Am. By BD Resolution № 213/27.10.2017, Am. By BD Resolution № 223/06.12.2017) Up to 100% of the Fund's assets in equities and rights of the companies which constitute the Reference Index, accounting also for minimum liquid funds maintenance. The Fund invests only in equities which are part of the Reference Index. In circumstances outside of the control of the Management Company (change of an issuer from the Reference Index), the Fund is obliged within 6 months to rebalance its portfolio and to sell/buy the equities, subject to change in the Reference Index. In the period of the Fund's capital raising, there could be disproportionately big cash inflows, beyond the control of the Management Company.
- 2) Up to 20% of the Fund's assets in bank deposits payable on demand or eligible to be withdrawn at any time and maturing in no more than 60 days, provided that the bank is with headquarters in the Republic of Bulgaria or in another EU Member State, and if headquartered in a third country, provided that it is subject to regulations which the Deputy Chairperson of FSC considers equivalent to those under the law of the European Union;
- 3) (Am. by BD Resolution № 223/06.12.2017) Without limitations, in total up to 100% of the Fund's assets, in securities and money market instruments, issued by a Member State of EU or a third country which is included in a list approved by the FSC Deputy Chairperson, only in the following or similar exceptional cases:
 - a) In case of disproportionately large subscription of new Fund units against cash on the primary market;
 - b) (Am. by BD Resolution № 213/27.10.2017) In case of low market liquidity – in case that it is impossible to rebalance the Fund in respect to all positions in the Reference Index and that would result in price movements of certain positions of over 10%, which is not justified by change in the fundamental characteristics of these companies;
 - c) High market, political or systemic risk that may obstruct the management of the Fund in normal market conditions;
 - d) The Management company, if it judges that any of the above mentioned risks is present, may invest temporarily its free funds in the securities and instruments under Item 3, but it must within 6 months rebalance again the Fund's portfolio in order to replicate the Reference Index as close as possible.

Investment restrictions

Art. 9.(Am. by BD Resolution № 213/27.10.2017, am, by BD Resolution № 223/06.12.2017) (1)Expat Slovakia SAX UCITS ETF aims to replicate as close as possible the composition of the SAX index which meets the following conditions:

- a. The index composition is sufficiently diversified;
- b. The index represents an adequate benchmark for the market to which it relates; and
- c. It is published in an appropriate manner.

As a passive index tracking fund, in compliance with the above mentioned conditions, Expat Slovakia SAX UCITS ETF has no other restrictions, except that for up to 20% in shares of one issuer, part of the Reference index, according to Art. 46, para 1 of LACISOCIU.

The ETF strives to follow the Reference Index, and it is possible that the allocation of the shares in the ETF deviates from that of the Reference Index at times of exceptional market conditions, change of the structure of the Reference Index, an order for subscription or redemption of the Fund, low market liquidity and low trading volume, etc. The Management Company (MC) performs any rebalancing of the ETF portfolio, led first of all by the investor interest and the Fund's mandate to track the Reference Index. In order to comply with the legal limits and maintain liquidity, and in order to meet redemption requirements, the Fund will maintain a minimum level of cash and equivalents, which limits the weight of shares that replicate the Reference Fund;

(2) The MC may not invest more than 20 per cent of the Fund's assets in deposits with a single entity under Art. 38, para 1, Item 6 of LACISOCIU.

(3) The risk exposition of the Fund to the counterparty, when using effective portfolio management techniques, may not exceed either of the following thresholds:

a. 10 per cent of the assets when the counterparty is a credit institution under Art. 38, para 1, Item 6 of LACISOCIU, or;

b. 5 per cent of the assets in all other cases.

(4) The total amount of investments under para 2-3 in securities or money market instruments, issued by a single entity and the deposits with this entity, and the exposure arising from effective portfolio management techniques, should not exceed 20 per cent of the amount of the Fund's assets.

(5) The Management Company may invest up to 30 percent of the Fund's assets in transferable securities and money market instruments, issued by a single issuer if the securities and money market instruments are issued or guaranteed by a Member State of the European Union, by its regional or local authorities, by a third country or a public international organization in which at least one Member State is a member.

(6) The parties belonging to one group for the purposes of preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with the recognized accounting standards are regarded as a single entity in applying the restrictions under para 2-4.

(7) The total amount of investments in transferable securities or money market instruments, issued by the companies in a group, should not exceed 20 per cent of the amount of the Fund's assets.

(8) In the calculation of the Fund's risk exposure to the counterparty, the MC takes into account the restrictions under para 2-4, if there is a collateral. The collateral may be reflected at net value if the MC can guarantee the applying of the netting agreement with that counterparty on behalf of the Fund.

(9) Expat Asset Management EAD calculates the concentration limits against an issuer under para 1-8 based on the base exposure arisen through the use of effective portfolio management techniques, according to the assumed liabilities method.

(10) In the calculation of the Fund's risk exposure to the counterparty, arising from effective portfolio management techniques under para 3 and 4, the MC must include in the calculations each risk exposure to the counterparty, arising from effective portfolio management techniques.

(11) The Management Company, acting for the account of all managed by it Funds, may not acquire shares with voting rights which would allow it to exercise substantial influence over the management of an issuer. The ETF may also acquire no more than:

- a. ten percent of the equity shares without voting rights issued by one entity;
- b. ten percent of the bonds or other debt securities issued by one entity;
- c. ten percent of the money market instruments issued by one entity.

(12) (Am. By BD Resolution № 230/08.01.2018) The restrictions under para 11 (b) and (c) shall not apply when at the time of acquisition of the indicated instruments, the Management Company, acting for the Fund's account, cannot calculate the gross amount of the debt securities, of the money market instruments or the net value of the issued securities.

(13) Upon conclusion of repo transactions, the Fund's risk exposure to each separate counterparty may not exceed 10 per cent of its assets, when the counterparty is a bank under Art. 38, para 1, Item 6 of LACISOCIU, and 5 per cent of the assets in all other cases.

(14) The restrictions under this Article shall not apply in exercising subscription rights attributed to transferable securities and money market instruments which are part of the Fund's assets.

(15) In the cases and under the conditions, envisaged in the Rules of the Fund and according to Art. 50, para 2 and 3 of LACISOCIU, some of the restrictions of the preceding paragraphs may be not applied up to 6 months after receiving the authorization for organization and management of the Fund. In the event of conversion in which the Fund is involved as a receiving collective investment scheme, for which the Financial Supervision Commission is a competent authority, the same restrictions from sentence one shall drop out for a period of up to 6 months after the date of entry of the merger or acquisition in the respective register.

(16) In case of violation of the investment restrictions under this Chapter for reasons beyond the control of the Management Company or as a result of exercising subscription rights, the Management Company shall, with priority but not later than six months after the violation occurrence, bring the Fund's assets in line with the investment restrictions by selling transactions, taking into account the best interest of the unitholders.

(17) In the cases under para 16, the Management Company must, within 7 days of commitment of the violations, inform the Financial Supervision Commission (FSC), providing information on the causes of its occurrence and the actions taken for its remedy. The information on the actions taken shall not be submitted if the violation was remedied until the provision of the notification.

Liquidity requirements

Art. 10. (1) (Repealed by BD Resolution № 213/27.10.2017)

(2) (Am. by BD Resolution № 213/27.10.2017) At any time the Fund must have minimum liquid funds, as follows:

- a) Cash (including deposits in credit institutions under Art. 38, para 1, Item 6 of LACISOCIU), securities, money market instruments under Art. 38, para 1, Item 1-3 of LACISOCIU and short-term receivables – amounting to not less than 100 per cent of the weighted current liabilities;
- b) (Am. by BD Resolution № 223/06.12.2017) The cash (including deposits in credit institutions under Art. 38, para 1, Item 6 of LACISOCIU), securities and money market instruments issued by a Member State of the European Union, and money market instruments under Art. 38, para 1, Item 9, letter „a“ of LACISOCIU– not less than 70 percent of the weighted current liabilities, except for liabilities related to participation in capital increase of public companies.

(3) The Fund may use various operations on the money market (repo deals, lending of securities) with the purpose of providing liquidity whenever necessary, if the redemption liabilities exceed the current cash amount of the Fund and securing additional cash through urgent asset sales may harm the interest of the rest of the investors of the Fund. Such operations are allowed under extreme market conditions: periods with low market liquidity, market fluctuations of over 5% for the day in the Reference Index or other circumstances that may lead to potential losses for the current investors of the Fund after providing the necessary liquidity.

(4) In case of violation of the requirements of the preceding paragraphs, the Fund must within 7 days of detecting the violation, notify the Financial Supervision Commission, stating the reasons for the violation and proposing measures to bring the liquidity in compliance with the statutory requirements. The Fund aligns its liquidity with the statutory requirements within 30 days of detecting the violation. When, before the expiry of the 7-day period, the Fund aligns its liquidity with the statutory requirements, it shall notify FSC thereof not later than the next business day. In such case, the requirement to propose measures under the first sentence shall not apply.

Other investment strategies and techniques

Art. 11. (1) The Fund may, in accordance with the law, buy or sell securities with the agreement to sell them, or respectively to buy them back from the seller/buyer in compliance with the requirements of Art. 27 and 28 of LACISOCIU and the Financial Collateral Arrangements Act (these transactions are generally known as contracts with repurchase agreement or repo transactions). These contracts may be executed under different conditions with respect to their term, determining of redemption price and collateral, depending on the situation and the agreement reached with the specific counterparty. The conclusion of such contracts could optimize the profitability and liquidity of the ETF, and its counterparties must meet pre-defined by the MC requirements of creditworthiness.

(2) The Management Company shall follow the guidelines in Section X of the Guidelines on Exchange-Traded Funds (ETF) and other UCITS issues (ESMA/2014/937). The Management Company shall not use derivative instruments in the Fund's management and structure and therefore all guidelines related to these instruments are not relevant. Expat Slovakia SAX UCITS ET" may use techniques and instruments related to securities and money market instruments under the conditions and restrictions set out in the Fund Rules, but in no case shall these techniques lead to deviation from the investment objectives of the Fund or impose additional risks, compared to the original risk policy, as described in the Fund Rules. When and if such actions are undertaken, Expat Slovakia SAX UCITS ETF will ensure that it is able at any time to take back all lent securities, or to terminate any concluded by it agreement for lending of securities. Term repo and reverse repo agreement, the duration of which does not exceed seven days, shall be considered transactions whose conditions enable the taking back of the assets by the Fund at any time. The annual report of Expat Slovakia SAX UCITS ETF shall also contain details on:

- a) the risk exposure due to efficient techniques for portfolio management;
- b) the identity of the counterparty/counterparties of these efficient techniques for portfolio management;

- c) type and amount of collateral received by the UCITS to reduce the exposure to the counterparty; revenues as a result of efficient techniques for portfolio management for the whole reporting period together with direct and indirect operating costs incurred and paid fees.

Restrictions on the Fund activities

Art. 12. (1) The Management Company may not change the scope of the Fund's activity or make a decision for its conversion in a way other than merger and acquisition after obtaining the license from the Financial Supervision Commission.

(2) The Management Company and the Custodian when acting for the account of the Fund may not:

- a) Grant loans or secure or guarantee obligations of third parties with assets of the Fund;
- b) Sell securities, money market instruments and other financial instruments under Art. 38, para 1, Item 1, 2, 3 and 9 LACISOCIU which the Fund does not own.

(3) The Management Company may not invest the assets of the Fund (or assets of all mutual funds managed by the Management Company and assets of other clients) in voting shares of a single issuer, in a way that the acquired shareholding enables the Management Company or the members of its management or control bodies, jointly or unilaterally, to exercise significant influence on the issuer.

(4) In managing the Fund, the Management Company shall comply with all legal requirements and restrictions, including those set by resolutions of the Financial Supervision Commission.

Other conditions on performing investment activity

Art. 13. In case of discrepancy of the provisions of Art. 8 – 12 of these Rules with subsequent changes in LACISOCIU and the sub-statutory acts of its implementation regarding the requirements and limitations for the composition and structure of the investments and the activities of the Fund, the new statutory provisions shall apply if they are more restrictive than the provisions in the Rules. In such cases, the Management Company shall bring the Rules of the Fund in line with the legislative amendments within the shortest reasonable time.

Net asset value of the Fund, net asset value per share, indicative net asset value and indicative NAV per unit

Art. 18. (1) The net asset value of the Fund and the net asset value per share are calculated every business day according to the conditions and method of the acting legislation, these Rules and the Valuation Rules. The Management Company makes a valuation of the Fund's portfolio, determines the Fund's net asset value, net asset value per share, and calculates the issue price and the redemption price. The Custodian shall guarantee the accuracy of the Fund's net asset value and the net asset value per share, the issue price and the redemption price, verifying and comparing the data provided by the Management Company with the records of the Custodian.

The calculation of the net asset value for the day of valuation, or day T, is performed on the next day, or day T+1. If for any of the markets this is a non-business day, the prices announced at the last business day of the respective market shall be applied.

The procedure for determining the Fund's net asset value, net asset value per share, the issue price and the redemption price shall be as follows:

- 1) By 9:15 (CET+1:00) of day T+1, following the day T, for which the valuation is made, the Management Company receives from the Central Depository AD information on the transactions for sale and redemption of units with completed settlement and on the number of the Fund's units in circulation.
- 2) The following shall be done between 9:15 and 9:45 (CET+1:00) on the respective day:

- a) the assets and the price of assets are determined in accordance with these Rules;
 - b) the accounting of all the Fund's operations and revaluation of the assets and liabilities are performed;
 - c) the net asset value and the net asset value per share are determined and a resolution is adopted in regard to the issue and redemption price of the Fund's units. The net asset value per share is determined by dividing the net asset value of the Fund by the number of units in circulation at the time of such calculation;
 - d) the issue price is equal to NAV per share plus the issue costs;
 - e) the redemption price is equal to NAV per share less redemption costs;
- 3) By 9:45 (CET+1:00) of day T+1, following the day T, for which the valuation is made, the net asset value, net asset value per share, the issue price and the redemption price of the Fund units as well all the information about their calculation, including about the number of the issued and redeemed units with completed settlement, are sent to the Custodian;
 - 4) Until 10:45 (CET+1:00) of day T+1, following the day T, for which the valuation is made, a confirmation by the Custodian is expected of the accuracy of the net asset value, net asset value per share, the issue price and the redemption price of the Fund units thus calculated (in case of any inconsistencies found, they should be corrected);
 - 5) Until 11:00 (CET+1:00) of day T+1, following day T, for which the valuation is made, the process of determining the net asset value for day T shall be completed.

On day T+1, following business day T, for which the valuation is made, the Management Company shall notify the Financial Supervision Commission of the issue price and redemption price of the Fund's units for day T.

By the end of business day T+1, on which the issue price and the redemption price of the Fund's units for day T is calculated, the Management Company shall announce those on the Fund's page in the website of the Management Company.

(2) (Am. by BD Resolution № 213/27.10.2017) The Management Company shall adopt Rules of portfolio valuation and determination of net asset value and indicative net asset value of the Fund, which shall contain the principles and methods for valuation of the assets as well as the system for organization of these activities.

(3) The calculation of the net asset value shall be made in compliance with the envisaged in the Valuation Rules. When calculating the net asset value, the fees due to the Management Company as well as other expenses according to legal provisions and concluded contracts, shall also be included.

(4) (Am. by BD Resolution 223/06.12.2017) The indicative NAV and indicative NAV per share is calculated and published by BSE – Sofia or by another operator on a regulated market, on which the Fund's units are admitted to trading, every day in which the Fund's units are traded on a regulated market (the regulated market is open and data on the Reference Index are published) every hour, considered from 10:10 to 16:10 Bulgarian time (CET+1:00) included. For that purpose, the Management Company shall conclude on behalf and for the account of the Fund a contract with BSE – Sofia AD, or with the respective regulated market operator. In the absence of such contract, the indicative NAV and NAV per share shall be published by the Management Company on the Fund's website. The entire information about the calculated indicative NAV for the trading session are provided to the Financial Supervision Commission by the exchange operator after the end of the trading session in electronic way.

(5) The Management Company provides BSE – Sofia or any other regulated market operator on which the Fund's units are admitted to trading, data on its portfolio structure, the volume of the instruments held per position, the cash amount in the Fund as well as on the number of the issued units confirmed by the Fund's Custodian for the previous business day. When the indicative net asset value of the Exchange-Traded Fund is calculated, the operator on the respective regulated market or the Management Company updates the assets prices of the Fund's portfolio constituents while keeping unchanged the level of all other elements from the Fund's balance sheet.

Assets and liabilities valuation methods

Art. 19. (1) (Am. by BD Resolution № 213/27.10.2017) At initial acquiring (recognition) of an asset, the valuation is made at the price of its acquisition, including also the transaction costs. Under this method the securities are recorded (removed) in the Fund's balance sheet on the date of transfer of ownership over them (settlement date), and not on the date of entering into the transaction. The removal of the securities from the balance sheet is done at their value as of the date of the sale settlement date.

(2) Subsequent valuation is performed for every security, financial instrument and other asset, including the assets initially recognized on the valuation date, according to a procedure and method, as envisaged in the Valuation Rules and in compliance with the legal requirements, the international standard and practices, and the FSC guidelines, by applying the following methods:

a) The fair value of securities and money market instruments, issued by the Republic of Bulgaria in the country, is defined based on the arithmetic average of the bid prices for the current business day, quoted by no less than two primary dealers of government securities.

i) In case that the price is calculated based on given gross prices by primary dealers, it is used directly for revaluation. In case that the price is net, it is transformed into gross on the basis of the interest rate characteristics of coupon frequency and size, and is used after that for revaluation;

ii) In the event that letter "a" is inapplicable on the relevant business day, the closest fair price established under the procedure of letter „a“ , during the 30-day period preceding the valuation day, is used for subsequent valuation. The gross price for the relevant revaluation day is calculated on the basis of the interest rate characteristics based on the coupon frequency and size of the relevant security.

b) In case that letter „a“ is inapplicable, the discounted cash flow method shall be used. The prices of the latest issues with the relevant maturity, which the primary dealers must quote, are used as a basis of the calculations. These latest issues with relevant maturity are hereinafter referred to for short as „base issues“. The issue whose price has to be defined is called „issue of interest“;

c) The fair value of the securities issued by the Republic of Slovakia and money market instruments abroad, as well as of those issued by another Member State and a third country which is not included in a list approved by the FSC Deputy Chairperson, securities and money market instruments traded on trading venues with active market, is determined:

i) By the bid price at market closure on the day of the valuation, published in an electronic system for price information on securities;

- ii) In case that the foreign market is closed on the day of valuation – by the market closing bid price on the last business day, published in an electronic system for price information;
 - iii) In the event that the price calculated according to subitems i) and ii), is gross, it is used directly for revaluation. In case that the price is a net price, it is transformed into a gross price using interest rate characteristics based on the coupon frequency and size and after that is used for revaluation;
 - (iv) In case that there are no transactions made on the day of valuation, the fair value of transferable securities and money market instruments is determined by the closing price or other similar indicator, publicly announced on trading venues for the most recent day from the 30-day period preceding the day of valuation;
 - (v) In cases when there is no trading on trading venues in business days in the country, the fair value of the transferable securities and money market instruments is determined by the closing price for the day of the last trading session, preceding the day of valuation. In the event that there are no transactions executed on the day of the last trading session, preceding the day of valuation, the fair value of the respective instruments is determined by the close price or other similar indicator, announced publicly by trading venues for the most recent day from the 30-day period, preceding the day of valuation. The valuation of bonds and other forms of securitized debt (debt securities) should also account for the accrued interest for the respective days;
 - (vi) In case the method under letter „c“, i) – v) cannot be applied, then the method under letter „b“ shall be used
- d) The fair value of Slovak and foreign equities and rights, traded on a regulated market or other trading venue in the Republic of Slovakia is determined:
- (i) (Am. by BD Resolution № 213/27.10.2017) For shares that are part of the Reference Index – by the same rules under which the valuation of the specific reference index is calculated, and namely by closing price and with price information published through the trading system or in the stock exchange bulletin, as long as the Reference Index revaluation method does not contradict the law. If the Reference Index revaluation method does not conform to the legal provisions, the shares shall be valued at closing price announced through the trading system or in the stock exchange bulletin;
 - (ii) For shares not included in the Reference Index – at closing price published through the trading system or in the stock exchange bulletin;
 - (iii) If a price cannot be determined under letter „d“, i) or ii), the price of the shares, respectively the rights, in case that there are no transactions with them on the day of valuation, is determined at the closing price published via the trading system or in the stock exchange bulletin for the most recent day from the 30-day period preceding the day of valuation or the day of the last trading session;
- e) If the methods of stock valuation pursuant to letter „d“ are not applicable, as well as for the shares which are not traded on a regulated market or other trading venues, the fair value is determined by applying in succession the following methods:
- i) Price-to-Earnings method of peer-group companies;
 - ii) Net Asset Value method;
 - iii) Discounted Cash Flow method.
- f) In the cases of acquisition of rights of a given company in a capital increase by issue of shares, a receivable (of rights) shall be recognized from the date on which the shareholders in the company are not entitled to acquire rights for subscription of shares from the capital increase (the date after which executed transactions with shares do not have effect on the entitlement to acquire rights), until the date of registration of the rights in the custodian institution.

g) The fair value of deposits in banks, cash in hand and short-term receivables is determined at the date of valuation, as follows:

- i) term and demand deposits, cash in hand – at face value;
- ii) short-term receivables without fixed interest rate or income – at cost;
- iii) short-term receivables with fixed interest rate or income – at cost.

h) The fair value of the financial instruments in an inactive market is determined by using valuation techniques. The valuation techniques include the use of prices from recent fair market deals between informed, willing parties, information on the current fair value of another asset which is to a considerable extent equivalent, and commonly agreed methods.

l) The subsequent valuation of instruments on the money market, admitted to trading or traded on a regulated market or other trading venue is determined:

i) By the most recent price from transactions executed with them on the respective market for the last business day;

ii) Valuation method from subpoint „i“ is inapplicable, the valuation is made using the bid price at market close on the last business day for which the valuation is performed, as published in an electronic system for pricing information of securities;

iii) When the valuation method under subpoint „ii“ is inapplicable, the valuation is performed at last price of executed with them transaction within the most recent 30-day period.

j) Financial assets denominated in a foreign currency are converted into their euro equivalent, determined by the central exchange rate of the European Central Bank, valid for the day of valuation.

(3) The value of the liabilities is equal to the sum of the book value of short-term and long-term liabilities on the balance sheet. The liabilities denominated in foreign currency are calculated at the central exchange rate of the European Central Bank as of the day of valuation.

(4) The net asset value of the Fund is calculated by subtracting the value of all liabilities determined under para 3 from the value of all assets determined under the Valuation Rules.

(5) The net asset value per share is equal to the Fund's net asset value, calculated according to the preceding provisions, divided by the Fund's number of units outstanding at the time of determination.

(6) In case of inconsistency of the above paragraphs with any subsequent amendments to the statutory acts, concerning the determination of the net asset value of the Fund, the new statutory provisions shall apply as of their entry into force. In such cases, the Management Company shall bring the Fund's Rules in compliance with the statutory amendments as soon as reasonably practicable.

Sale and redemption of units on the primary market

Art. 20. (1) The primary market is the market on which the Fund's units are issued or redeemed directly by the Fund itself. The following groups of investors may participate in the primary market under the following conditions, laid down in these Rules, if the same are not in conflict with any law or regulation:

Type of investor	Minimum size of the order for purchase of units of the Fund	Minimum size of the order for redemption of units of the Fund
Institutional investor	100 000 units	100 000 units
Other investors (including a marketmaker), that has concluded a contract for participation on the primary market with the Management Company	According to conditions and restrictions specified in the contract with the Management Company	According to conditions and restrictions specified in the contract with the Management Company

(2) Any orders and their timely submission to the Fund are the responsibility of the institutional investors, marketmakers and any other investor that have concluded a primary market participation agreement with the Management Company. Once accepted by the Fund, the orders become irrevocable.

- a) The persons eligible to sign a primary market participation agreement are investors who are classified as a „professional client“ within the meaning of § 1, Item 9 of the Markets in Financial Instruments Act;
- b) The agreed conditions for a minimum amount of the investment, the steps for orders over the minimum size and the charges will be agreed with each investor, in accordance with the commitment for the investment's amount, periods, frequency and other conditions proposed on the investor's side.

(3) „Institutional investors“ are all insurance companies, banks, investment intermediaries, management companies, pension funds, and all collective investment schemes and investment companies with a license obtained in the EU, EEA or OECD country.

(4) Each order must meet the requirement for the minimum size and be in steps of 100 000 units (the number of units should be multiple of 100 000) for purchase or redemption orders with sizes above the minimum, unless otherwise agreed in a contract with the Management Company.

(5) If the investor (including the marketmaker) has placed a purchase or redemption order by 15:00 (CET +1:00), then the order will be executed using the NAV for the day on which it is placed. If the order is given after 15:00 (CET+1:00), then it will be executed using the NAV for the day following the day when the order was placed. In case that the order form is not signed or is not properly filled out, the order shall be considered invalid and has to be placed again.

(6) Regardless of the invested amount, the investors in the Fund have to pay a charge at maximum rate of 2.00% for the purchase of units, payable to the Management Company, which is charged on the net asset value of the Fund per 1 unit and is included in the issue price of the units, unless otherwise agreed in a contract with the Management Company. The issue price of the Fund is defined as NAV per 1 unit plus the charge, payable to the Management Company.

(7) The investors in the Fund should pay a charge to the maximum rate of 2.00% in case of redemption of units, payable to the MC, which is deducted from the net asset value of the Fund per 1 unit, unless otherwise agreed in a contract with the Management Company. The redemption price of the Fund is defined as NAV per 1 unit less the charge payable to the Management Company.

(8) In case of change in the entry charge (the excess of the issue price per unit over the net asset value per share by the amount of the expenses on sale of the units), respectively a change in the exit charge (the reduction of the redemption price of a unit below the net asset value per share by the amount of expenses on the redemption of units), the Management Company shall notify the unitholders and the other investors by an announcement on the website of the Management Company immediately after the approval by the Financial Supervision Commission of the changes in these Rules.

(9) The investors shall pay at cost all expenses for settlement and transfer of the Fund's units for all operations on the primary market, including custodian fees, bank fees, commissions, taxes, etc.

(10) Units of the Fund shall be purchased in the following way:

- a) Placing an order for purchase of units. Investors shall place orders for purchase of units, containing the particulars in accordance with Ordinance № 44 of 20.10.2011 on the Requirements for the activity of the collective investment schemes, their management companies, national investment funds and the persons managing alternative investment funds (order forms are available at the Management Company's office), in person, by a proxy/representative or through an investment broker/bank/management company with a license issued in the EU, when the investor is a client of the respective investment broker, bank or management company. Orders for purchase of units shall be accepted every business day between 9:00 and 17:00 (CET+1:00) at the office of the Management Company, electronically with an electronic signature at email: asset.management@expat.bg, or if technically possible, through internationally established electronic platforms for online fund management services, such as Clearstream VESTIMA. In the order, the investor shall state whether the units will be issued against payment or against a basket of financial assets. If the order is placed by a proxy, the latter must also submit an original of a notarized power of attorney explicitly authorizing the proxy to perform management and disposal actions of securities, and a written statement that he/she is not professionally involved in transactions with securities. These requirements do not apply when the order is placed by an investment intermediary, a bank or a management company.
- b) Payment for the subscribed units (Am. by BD Resolution № 213/27.10.2017) The money and/or basket of assets for the subscribed units shall be received under a special account with the Custodian, held in the name of the Fund upon the units' delivery against payment (DVP) to the client. The settlement of delivery against payment (DVP) transactions on the primary market, against cash and/or a basket of assets is performed at Central Depository AD in accordance with the Rules and Regulations on the operation of Central Depository AD.
- c) Order execution (Am. by BD Resolution № 213/27.10.2017) If the investor (including a market maker) has placed a purchase or redemption order by 15:00 (CET+1:00), the order will be executed using the NAV for the day on which the order was placed. If the order is given after 15:00 (CET+1:00), then it will be executed using the NAV for the day following the day when the order was placed. Pursuant to Art. 66, para 1 of Ordinance № 44, orders shall be fulfilled within 7 calendar days of the day of placing the order. In case that the order form is not signed or is not properly filled out, the order shall be considered invalid and must be placed again. In the order, the client should explicitly state whether he/she wishes units delivery against payment (DVP) and/or against a basket of assets at the respective custodian institution. The date of delivery shall be two days after placing the order (T+2).

- i) Order execution against payment in cash. On the next business day, following the day whose NAV per share shall be used for the order execution, the units shall be issued and directed for transfer to the client on the specified in the order value date. The order is executed for the number of the required units multiplied by the determined issue price per unit, and the issue price is rounded to the fourth digit after the decimal point. The Management Company shall provide confirmation for the execution of the valid order, containing instructions for delivery of the units against payment (DVP) as soon as possible but not later than the end of the business day following the order execution for the day whose NAV is used for the fulfilment of the order.
- ii) Order execution against delivery of a basket of assets. (Am. by BD Resolution № 213/27.10.2017, am. by BD Resolution № 223/06.12.2017) Each business day, the Management Company shall publish at www.expat.bg the contents of a basket of assets which represents 10 000 Fund's units („Creation Unit“). In the order for unit subscription on the primary market, the investor shall indicate the number of shares of each issuer that he/she will deposit in the Fund. The number of shares of each issuer must correspond to the admissible number in the creation unit (or to be divisible of it in case of subscriptions of over 10 000 units). The order is executed for the size of the requested number of units, multiplied by the specified issue price per unit. The obtained amount is called „Order amount“. On the next business day following the day whose NAV per share shall be used for the order execution, the units are issued and directed for transfer to the client. By 12:00 (CET+1:00) at noon on that day, the client shall receive a confirmation of the placed order, in which the Management Company states the cash component to be deposited on the account kept in the name of the Fund at Central Depository together with the requested shares. To determine the cash component, the sum of the shares declared to be deposited multiplied by their price for the day whose NAV shall be used for the order execution, is deducted from the order amount. The value of the assets in the basket which is transferred to the Fund is calculated in accordance with the Rules of Portfolio Valuation and Determination of Net Asset Value and Indicative Net Asset Value. To the cash components thus obtained shall be added all costs associated with the transfer of the basket of assets and the cash component that the Fund has to pay, if any. Thus, they are borne by the client subscribing units of the Fund and not by the existing unitholders of the Fund. The delivery of the basket of assets is done through the custodians of both sides on date T+2. The parties shall instruct the custodians providing services to them, on T+1 to transfer the basket with assets against units of the Fund or vice reverse, according to the rules and procedures of the respective depository institution. The communication between the custodians is carried out according to the established for the relevant market manner (In Bulgaria the communication with Central Depository AD is done via FTP or SWIFT channel, abroad a main channel of communication between the custodians is SWIFT). Additional information on settlement is published on the Management Company's website.

d) Order withdrawal. Once placed, an order for purchase of units of the Fund may not be withdrawn.

(11) Fund's units shall be redeemed in the following manner:

- a) Placing an order for redemption of units. Investors shall place an order for redemption of units in person, by a proxy or through an investment broker/bank/management company with a license issued in the EU, when such investor is a client of the respective investment broker, bank or management company. An order form may be obtained at the above mentioned office. Orders for redemption of units shall be accepted every business day between 9:00 and 17:00 (CET+1:00) at the office of the Management Company, electronically via electronic signature at email: asset.management@expat.bg, or if technically possible through internationally established online fund management platform, such as Clearstream VESTIMA. If the order is placed by a proxy, the latter should submit the original of a notarized power of attorney, entitling to manage and give buy and sell orders for securities, as well as a statement that he/she is not professionally involved in transactions with securities. These requirements do not apply when the order is placed by an investment broker, bank or a management company.
- b) (Am. by BD Resolution № 231/27.10.2017) Order execution. The redemption order is executed at price per unit calculated for the day of placing the order, if the order is given by 15:00 (CET+1:00). For orders placed after this time, the redemption price is determined using the NAV for the next day. Valid orders for redemption of ETF units shall be executed on the next business day following the specified in the order value date whose NAV per unit will be used for the order execution but no later than 10 days from the date the order was submitted. Date of settlement is two days after the order submission (T+2).
- c) Payment of the amount due. The amount due shall be paid on indicated bank account of the client under the delivery versus payment (DVP) method or with a basket of financial assets constituting the Fund's portfolio, in the respective depository institution at the value date stated in the order.
- i) Order execution against payment in cash. The Management Company executes all redemption orders for execution using the NAV per share on day T against cash, only if the amount due to investors under redemption orders for execution using the NAV per share for day T is less than the cash holdings of the Fund minus all liabilities of the Fund, as calculated in the NAV for day T but also taking into account all transactions for the purchase of assets of the Fund with pending settlement and for redemption from the Fund with pending/forthcoming settlement, which are not reflected in the NAV for day T.
- ii) Order execution against delivery of a basket of assets. Upon submission of the redemption order, the investor has the right to declare that he/she wishes the order to be executed against a basket of financial assets. The Management Company performs all redemption orders for execution using the NAV per unit for day T against a basket of financial assets, when the amount due to investors under redemption orders for execution, using the NAV per share for day T, is greater than the cash holdings of the Fund minus all Fund's liabilities as calculated in NAV for day T, but also taking into account all transactions for purchase of assets of the Fund with pending settlement and for redemption from the Fund with pending/expected settlement, which are not reflected in NAV for day T. In the cases when these conditions are not met, the Management Company shall perform the redemption orders against payment in cash in the manner described in b. i). Each redemption order against a basket of assets of the Fund shall be executed as follows:
- The number of units requested and accepted for redemption in the order is multiplied by their redemption price per unit and form „amount payable to redemption order“;

- The calculated percentage of the „amount payable to redemption order“ against the total net asset value of the Fund, based on which the order is executed, is „redemption rate“. This percentage is rounded to the second decimal point (e.g., 7.355% is rounded to 7.36%, etc.);
- For each security in the Fund's portfolio, the number of shares available in the Fund's portfolio according to the NAV for the order execution is multiplied by the redemption rate, and the obtained figure is rounded down to the first integer (for example, 5.89 becomes 5, etc.). All shares obtained as a number are multiplied by their price as used in the NAV based on which the order is executed. This amount is subtracted from „amount payable to redemption order“, and the remainder, if any, is paid in cash.

d) Order confirmation. The Management Company shall provide confirmation for execution of the valid order, containing instructions for delivery of the units against payment (DVP), or against a basket of financial assets as soon as possible but not later than the end of the business day following the day whose NAV is used for the order execution.

e) Order withdrawal. Once placed, an order for redemption of the Funds units may not be cancelled.

(12) Calculation of the net asset value of the Fund and of the net asset value per share shall be done in accordance with Art. 18 and Art. 19 of these Rules. In calculating the net asset value per one share, the issue price and the redemption price are rounded to the fourth decimal point. NAV, NAV per share, issue price and redemption price are calculated in euro.

(13) In case of an error made in calculating the net asset value per share, resulting in an increased issue price by more than 0.5 (zero point five) percent of the net asset value per share, the Management Company or the Custodian must reimburse the difference to the investor who has purchased the units at increased issue price from the ETF funds within a 10-day period of finding the error, unless the investor himself was acting in bad faith.

In case of an error made in calculating the net asset value per share, resulting in a decreased issue price by more than 0.5 (zero point five) percent of the net asset value per share, the Management Company or the Custodian must reimburse to the Fund the amount due at their own expense within a 10-day period of finding the error

If the error made does not exceed 0.5 (zero point five) per cent of the net asset value per share, the Management Company or the Custodian shall take the necessary measures to avoid errors in the calculation of the net asset value per share and for sanctioning of the responsible employees.

These Rules also apply when an error is made in calculating the net asset value per share, as a result of which the redemption price per unit is reduced or increased.

(14) The Fund may refuse and cancel, in whole or in part, orders for purchase of units by market makers in liquidation or bankruptcy.

Purchase and sale of units on a secondary market

Art. 21. (1) The Management Company intends to list the units of Expat Slovakia SAX UCITS ETF for trading on the Bulgarian Stock Exchange – Sofia and on the official segment of the London Stock Exchange, as well as on other regulated markets. As part of the listing, there is a requirement one or more members of the respective Exchange to be appointed as marketmakers that provide prices at which the Fund's units can be purchased or sold on the Exchange.

(2) The bid/ask spread can be regulated and subject to monitoring by the respective Exchange.

(3) The Management Company does not charge fees for purchase or sale of the Fund's units on a secondary market, such as a stock exchange.

(4) In buying and selling the units of the Fund on a stock exchange on which the Fund is admitted or will be admitted for continuous trading, other than the one which the stock exchange itself may require.

(5) The units purchased on the secondary market cannot be redeemed by the Fund on a primary market, except in the cases under Art. 20, para 1 for a certain category of clients: when the client is an institutional investor and covers the requirements for a minimum number of units of the order or the investor has concluded a contract for access to a primary market with the Management Company. Investors should buy and sell units on a secondary market with the assistance of an investment intermediary and they may incur fees for that. Furthermore, investors may pay more than the current net asset value when buying units on a secondary market, and may receive less than the current net asset value when selling them.

(6) If there is a substantial deviation of the exchange price of the Fund's units, including upon market disruptions, the minimum restrictions for redemption as described in Section Sales and redemption of units on a primary market in these Rules shall not apply. A substantial deviation of the exchange price of the Fund's units is considered to be: when the price of the last trade with units of the Fund, concluded on a regulated market, is 20% lower or higher than the last published NAV per share (indicative or for the day, depending on which one is the last), where for each trade the time when it was concluded and the last published NAV to this hour is taken into account. As „Market disturbances“ are considered only the following cases:

a) Absence of a marketmaker;

b) When the units are suspended from trading on a secondary market for more than 3 consecutive days

(7) Upon occurrence of a condition under which the restrictions for redemption are not applied, the Management Company shall immediately notify the Exchange on which the units are traded, and the Financial Supervision Commission, as well as shall publish information on its website about that circumstance and the possibility any investor to request redemption.

(8) The costs of redemption paid by investors in this case are the same as those described in Art. 35 Costs payable by Investors of these Rules.

Obligations of the Management Company in sale and redemption of units

Art. 22. (1) When pursuing activity for sale and redemption, the Management Company shall:

- a) ensure the acceptance of the orders for sale and redemption of units on a primary market by electronic or other means and realize the contacts with the Fund's unitholders, as well as provide conditions for acceptance and accept orders electronically each business day;
- b) open to its account with the Central Depository sub-accounts of the unitholders of the Fund, unless otherwise envisaged in the order;
- c) accept every business day from the marketmakers, from the institutional investors and any other investor who has concluded a contract with the Management

- Company, orders with legally defined contents for purchase and redemption of units of the Fund on a primary market;
- d) deliver daily to the Central Depository information required for the settlement of the executed transactions with issued/redeemed units of the Fund on a primary market;
 - e) forward on a daily basis to the Custodian the calculated net asset value, net asset value per share, issue price and redemption price of the Fund's units, as well as all the information concerning their determination, including the number of the issued and redeemed units with closed settlement on a primary market;
 - f) review immediately all statements, opinions and recommendations of the Custodian made or given in the exercising of its control functions;
 - g) by the end of the business day make the accounting records of all deals and operations made for the Fund's account;
